To Mrs Emma Willard.

PROSPECT

HOURS THERE ARE IN EARTHLY LIFE

Words translated from the German

Music by

M. PHILIPPE.

BOSTON. Published by OLIVER DITSON 115 Washington St.

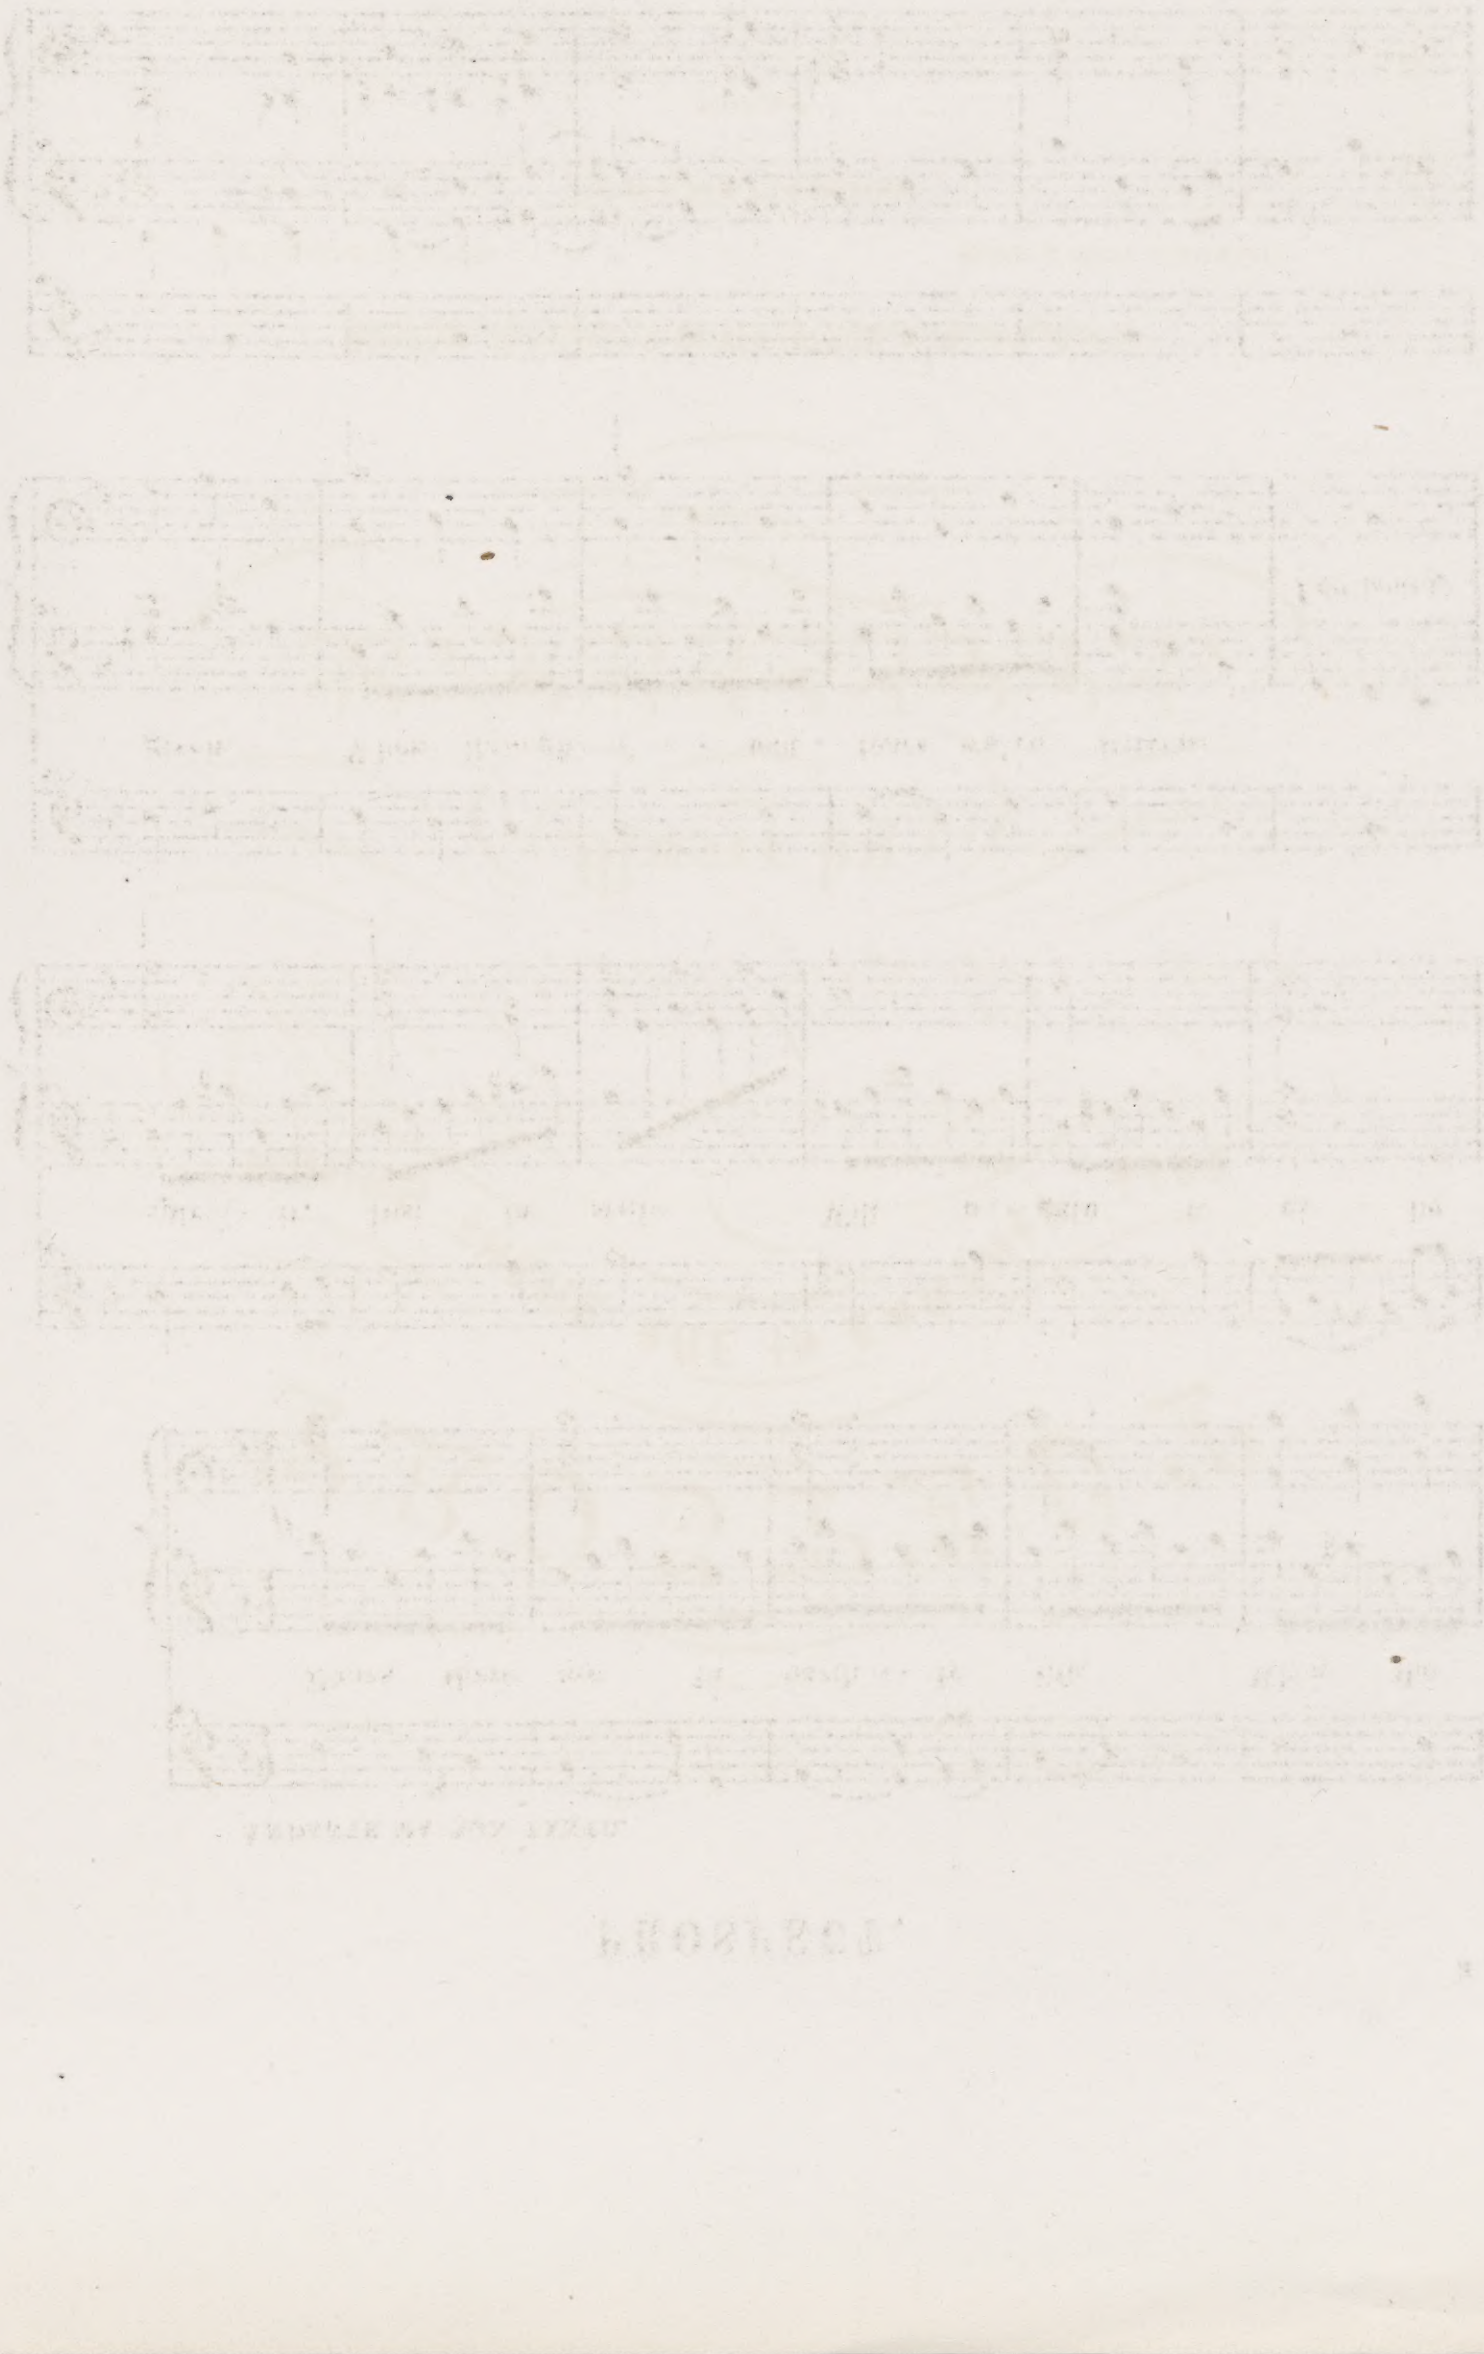
J.E.GOULD & CO. N.YORK. MURCH & WHITE. CINCINNATI.

TYLER & HEWITT. N.ORLEANS.

25 cts nett.

E/851-57 1
Philippe

17438



PROSPECT.

ANDANTE MA NON TANTO.

Hours there are in earth - - ly life, When the

p spir - - it, lost in strife Will a - gain to us be given, When through si - - lent tears we've striven.

Lagrimoso.

As the vi - o - lets

p

sfz sfz

vi - o - lets rise . . . a - new . . . from . . the balm - y

weight of dew, So . . . our in - - ward life re -

- turns . . . When the heart no lon - - ger mourns.

sf

How the bur - - den'd heart will cheer, When is shed the last sad tear, When in heaven our home we find, Ev - er - last - ing peace, e'er - last - ing peace, e'er - last - ing peace of mind.

sfz Perdendosi.